10 v.
11 JOHN DOE SUBSCRIBER ASSIGNED IP
12 ADDRESS 174.160.76.56,
13 Defendant.

Case No. 5:24-cv-00440-EJD

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION
FOR LEAVE TO FILE THIRD PARTY SUBPOENA

Re: Dkt. No. 7

14 Plaintiff, Strike 3 Holdings, LLC (“Strike 3”), filed this action against an unknown
15 individual who allegedly used BitTorrent to illegally download and distribute Strike 3’s
16 copyrighted adult films. Strike 3 now seeks a subpoena to compel non-party Comcast Cable to 17 identify this unknown individual associated with the IP address 174.160.76.56. Ex Parte Appl. for 18 Leave to Serve a Third Party Subpoena (“Appl.”), ECF No. 7.

19 Based on Strike 3’s submissions, the Court GRANTS leave to serve a subpoena with 20 specific conditions provided below. Because many courts have raised concerns that Strike 3 could 21 be pursuing potentially innocent ISP account owners who are often embarrassed into early 22 settlements, the identity of the Doe Defendant SHALL be protected unless and until further order by the Court.

23 I. BACKGROUND

24 Plaintiff Strike 3 Holdings, LLC owns the copyrights for several adult motion pictures that 25 are associated with and distributed through various adult websites. Compl. ¶¶ 1–3 ECF No. 1.
26 Using a specialized infringement detection system it developed, Strike 3 discovered the IP address
27 of the Doe Defendant who allegedly infringed upon its copyrights. Id. ¶ 29. Specifically, the
28 Case No.: 5:24-cv-00440-EJD
ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION FOR LEAVE TO FILE THIRD PARTY SUBPOENA

1 Complaint alleges that the Defendant used BitTorrent's file network to illegally download and
2 distribute about twenty-four (24) of Strike 3's copyrighted material. Id. ¶¶ 29, 38; see also id., Ex.
3 A.

4 On January 25, 2023, Strike 3 filed the Complaint in this case, asserting one claim of direct 5 copyright infringement and seeking an injunction and statutory damages. Id. at 7–8.

6 II. LEGAL STANDARD

7 A court may authorize early discovery before the Rule 26(f) conference for the parties' and 8 witnesses' convenience and in the interests of justice. Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(d). Courts within the 9 Ninth Circuit generally consider whether a plaintiff has shown "good cause." See, e.g., IO Grp., Inc. v. Does 1–65, 2010 WL 4055667, at *2 (N.D. Cal. Oct. 15, 2010); Semitool, Inc. v. Tokyo Electron Am., Inc., 208 F.R.D. 273, 275–77 (N.D. Cal. 2002). "Good cause may be found where 10 the need for expedited discovery, in consideration of the administration of justice, outweighs the 11 prejudice to the responding party." Semitool, 208 F.R.D. at 276.

12 In evaluating whether a plaintiff establishes good cause to learn the identity of a Doe
13 defendant through early discovery, courts examine whether the plaintiff:

- 14 (1) identifies the Doe defendant with sufficient specificity that the court can determine that 15 the defendant is a real person who can be sued in federal court;
- 16 (2) recounts the steps taken to locate and identify the defendant;
- 17 (3) demonstrates that the action can withstand a motion to dismiss; and
- 18 (4) shows that the discovery is reasonably likely to lead to identifying information that will 19 permit service of process.

20 Columbia Ins. Co. v. seescandy.com, 185 F.R.D. 573, 578–80 (N.D. Cal. 1999) (citations omitted).
21 "[W]here the identity of alleged defendants [is not] known prior to the filing of a complaint[,] the 22 plaintiff should be given an opportunity through discovery to identify the unknown defendants,
23 unless it is clear that discovery would not uncover the identities, or that the complaint would be 24 dismissed on other grounds." Wakefield v. Thompson, 177 F.3d 1160, 1163 (9th Cir. 1999).

1 III. DISCUSSION

2 A. Strike 3's Litigation History

3 As this Court has done in its prior orders, before turning to the merits of the application,
4 the Court believes that an overview of Strike 3's litigation history would provide useful context
5 for the Doe Defendant or any other party who may receive this Order. See Strike 3 Holdings, LLC
6 v. John Doe Subscriber Assigned IP Address 73.231.214.39, No. 5:23-CV-05468-EJD, 2023 WL
7 8458262, at *1 (N.D. Cal. Nov. 27, 2023). Especially given the informational disparity and matrix
8 of undesirable options facing an ISP subscriber served with such a complaint, this context will 9 hopefully reduce the prejudice that individual may face.

10 Strike 3 has filed thousands of similar lawsuits and requests to subpoena subscriber
11 information from ISPs, such as Comcast Cable. See, e.g., Strike 3 Holdings, LLC v. Doe, No. 23-
12 CV-04339-RS, 2023 WL 6542326, at *2 (N.D. Cal. Sept. 22, 2023) (collecting cases). At least 13 one federal judge has also openly characterized Strike 3 as a "copyright troll" that uses its 14 "swarms of lawyers [to] hound people who allegedly watch their content through BitTorrent."
15 Strike 3 Holdings, LLC v. Doe, 351 F. Supp. 3d 160, 161–62 (D.D.C. 2018) (describing the 16 copyright troll's strategy as "file a deluge of complaints; ask the court to compel disclosure of the 17 account holders; settle as many claims as possible; abandon the rest"), rev'd and remanded, 964
18 F.3d 1203 (D.C. Cir. 2020).

19 In practice, once subscribers are alerted that they are being sued for uploading
20 pornography, they may be pressured to quickly settle the matter to avoid the risk of having their 21 names publicly associated with the lawsuit or the costs of hiring an expensive copyright legal 22 specialist. See Strike 3 Holdings, LLC, 2023 WL 6542326, at *2; see also Strike 3 Holdings, 351
23 F. Supp. 3d at 162 ("[O]nce the ISP outs the subscriber, permitting them to be served as the 24 defendant, any future Google search of their name will turn-up associations with the websites
25 Vixen, Blacked, Tushy, and Blacked Raw."). As a result, many innocent ISP subscribers would be 26 pressured to settle, even though several courts have observed that "ISP subscribers may not be the 27 individuals who infringed upon Strike 3's copyright." Strike 3 Holdings, LLC v. Doe, No. 3:23-

1 CV-01977-LB, 2023 WL 4003723, at *3 (N.D. Cal. May 9, 2023) (collecting cases); see also
2 Strike 3 Holdings, 351 F. Supp. 3d at 162 (“[I]nferring the person who pays the cable bill illegally
3 downloaded a specific file is even less trustworthy than inferring they watched a specific TV
4 show.”). Moreover, if a defendant moves to confront a “copyright troll” or exhibits any serious
5 resistance, the company can simply drop the case and avoid any unfavorable judicial rulings. See
6 Strike 3 Holdings, 351 F. Supp. 3d at 162 (“These serial litigants drop cases at the first sign of 7 resistance, preying on low-hanging fruit and staying one step ahead of any coordinated defense.”).

8 B. Good Cause

9 Turning to the merits of Strike 3’s ex parte application, the Court finds that Strike 3 has 10 demonstrated good cause for this early discovery under the four seescandy.com factors.

11 First, the Court finds that Strike 3 has identified the Doe Defendant with sufficient
12 specificity for the Court to determine that the Doe Defendant is a real person who may be sued in 13 federal court. The Complaint alleges that BitTorrent’s protocols require the activity of a human 14 user to share movies within the BitTorrent network. Compl. ¶¶ 19–27. Strike 3 also used
15 Maxmind geolocation technology to trace the IP address it procured through its VNX Scan 16 detection software to a geographic location within this district. Id. ¶¶ 9, 29.

17 Second, Strike 3 has recounted the steps it took to locate and identify the Doe Defendant.
18 In addition to the geolocation and infringement detection technology already described, Strike 3
19 has attempted to associate the IP address with a defendant individual using various web search
20 tools and consultations with computer investigators and cyber security experts. Appl. 10.

21 Third, Strike 3 has preliminarily demonstrated that its action can withstand a motion to 22 dismiss. “Plaintiffs must satisfy two requirements to present a prima facie case of direct 23 infringement: (1) they must show ownership of the allegedly infringed material and (2) they must 24 demonstrate that the alleged infringers violate at least one exclusive right granted to copyright
25 holders under 17 U.S.C. § 106.” Perfect 10, Inc. v. Amazon.com, Inc., 508 F.3d 1146, 1159 (9th
26 Cir. 2007). A copyright holder’s rights under § 106 include the exclusive rights to reproduce,
27 distribute, publicly display, perform, and create derivative works of the copyrighted work. 17

1 U.S.C. § 106. Here, Strike 3 alleges that it owns the copyrights to adult movies that the Doe
2 Defendant downloaded, copied, and distributed without permission. Compl. ¶¶ 29, 44. Accepting
3 these allegations as true, the Court finds that the Complaint may withstand a motion to dismiss.

4 Finally, Strike 3 has shown that the discovery it seeks is reasonably likely to lead to 5 identifying information that will permit service of process on the Doe Defendant. Specifically,
6 Strike 3 only seeks the name and address of the Doe Defendant and has represented that the “only
7 entity that can correlate the IP address to its subscriber and identify Defendant as the person
8 assigned the IP address is Defendant’s ISP.” Appl. 6 (citing BMG Rts. Mgmt. (US) LLC v. Cox
9 Comm’ns, Inc., 881 F.3d 293, 299 (4th Cir. 2018) (“[O]nly the ISP can match the IP address to 10 the subscriber’s identity.”)).

11 In sum, the Court finds that Strike 3 has satisfied all four seescandy.com factors and 12 presented good cause for its requested expedited discovery.

13 C. Protective Order

14 Even though Strike 3 is entitled to a pre-discovery subpoena, the Court retains authority
15 under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c) to grant a sua sponte protective order for good cause.
16 See, e.g., McCoy v. Sw. Airlines Co., 211 F.R.D. 381, 385 (C.D. Cal. 2002); Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c).
17 In this case, the Court finds that there is good cause to implement limited protective measures to 18 shield a potential innocent and unwitting ISP subscriber from undue prejudice. Strike 3 does not 19 oppose establishing procedural safeguards to respect privacy interests. Appl. 12–13.

20 Consistent with the protective measures undertaken by many other courts in this district,
21 the Court will employ procedures to treat as confidential any personal information regarding the 22 Doe Defendant that Comcast Cable produces to Strike 3. The Court will also permit and consider 23 any request by the Doe Defendant to proceed anonymously under a pseudonym.

24 IV. CONCLUSION

25 Based on the foregoing, the Court GRANTS Strike 3’s Ex Parte Application with respect
26 to Defendant Doe, Subscriber Assigned IP Address 174.160.76.56, as follows:

27 1. Strike 3 MAY serve a Rule 45 subpoena on Comcast Cable (“ISP”), commanding the
28 Case No.: 5:24-cv-00440-EJD
ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION FOR LEAVE TO FILE THIRD PARTY SUBPOENA

ISP to provide Strike 3 with the true name and address of the Defendant to whom the ISP assigned an IP address as set forth on Exhibit A to the Complaint. Strike 3 SHALL attach a copy of this Order to any such subpoena.

a. Strike 3 MAY serve a Rule 45 subpoena in the same manner as above on any service provider that is identified in response to a subpoena as a provider of Internet services to the Defendant.

b. If the ISP qualifies as a “cable operator” per 47 U.S.C. § 522(5), then it shall comply with 47 U.S.C. § 551(c)(2)(B) by sending a copy of this Order to Defendant.

2. Within thirty (30) days of being served by Strike 3, the ISP SHALL serve the Doe Defendant subscriber assigned the IP address 174.160.76.56 with a copy of the subpoena and this Order.

3. Within thirty (30) days after he or she has been served with the subpoena and this Order, the Doe Defendant MAY file a motion to contest the subpoena, including a motion to quash or modify the subpoena. The Doe Defendant MAY appear and proceed before this Court under a pseudonym by requesting that their personal identifying information be filed under seal.

a. If the Doe Defendant does not contest the subpoena within thirty days, the ISP may produce the information responsive to Strike 3’s subpoena within ten (10) days.

4. Strike 3 MAY only use the information disclosed in response to its subpoena for the purpose of protecting and enforcing its rights as set forth in the Complaint. Strike 3 MAY NOT publicly disclose the information obtained from its subpoena without leave of this Court. All references to the Doe Defendant’s identity SHALL be redacted and filed under seal until further notice.

5. Comcast Cable or any other ISP that receives a subpoena pursuant to this Order SHALL confer with Strike 3 and MAY NOT assess any charge in advance of providing the information requested in the subpoena. The ISP that receives a subpoena

1 and elects to charge for the costs of production must provide a billing summary and
2 cost reports that serve as a basis for the billing summary and costs claimed by the ISP.

3 6. Comcast Cable or any other ISP that receives a subpoena pursuant to this Order
4 SHALL preserve any subpoenaed information pending the resolution of any timely
5 filed motion to dismiss.

6 IT IS SO ORDERED.
